

What Goes In Your Bin?

Some items are tricky to describe so please also use the In the Bin page on the website as a visual resource.

www.somacycler.com

If you're still unsure about an item, please send us an email and we'll give you an answer!

PLASTIC FILM

Clean, Dry, & Free of Debris—Some plastic film items can be a little dirty. Please rinse and air-dry them if necessary.

Thin & Stretchy—If a plastic item it is thin and stretchy, and you can push your finger through it, it can go in the bin.

#2 or #4— If a plastic film item has a #2 or #4 printed on it, you can be doubly sure that it is accepted.

plastic mailers—both thin plastic and those padded with bubble wrap bubble wrap and air pillows used in shipping ziploc bags and grocery packaging with ziploc closure sandwich bread bags AND any similar grocery packaging that is plastic film stretch/shrink wrap (must be clean and dry) over wrap from paper products (paper towels, toilet paper, etc)

PLASTIC FILM

plastic liner in cereal boxes plastic retail shopping bags newspaper sleeves

dry cleaning bags

produce bags—what you might put loose fruit or vegetables in at the grocery store furniture and electronic wrap grocery bags - the single-use bags that are not used at our grocery stores anymore

ELECTRONICS

laptops, tablets, cell phones gaming consoles/systems & video games external hard drives charging cables and insulated cables/wires printer cartridges

routers and modems

mice & similar accessories

CLOTHING, SHOES, & LINENS clothing - all conditions accepted shoes - all types accepted accessories - hats, purses, belts, jewelry linens - sheets, pillowcases, blankets, table linens, quilts

MISCELLANEOUS

eyeglasses - prescription, readers, & sunglasses paper egg cartons

paper towel & tp rolls small cardboard tube from roll of dog waste bags wine corks - natural cork alkaline batteries

contact lenses & plastic packaging

CFL light bulbs

LED string lights

stuffed animals

plastic tabs from bread bags